Performance-gated local repair modes in modular DASP

The guard split selects emergency versus background behavior; the current modular_dasp path applies the localized update directly.